

A Message about Evolution

from the 'Teachers of Love'

“Tolerance for others who are different from oneself is one of the greatest challenges for humankind. Throughout human history including today, atrocities have been committed upon those who believe, think, act, and live differently from the majority in power. Today, races, lifestyles, religious and spiritual practices, and cultural and belief systems, clash, causing untold human suffering. Even the “justice” systems reap misery with impunity upon the loved ones of the punished. Civilization remains highly uncivil.

The 21st century must add yet another difference to this equation. The concept of race will need to expand to include those non-human beings already here, with many more to come. Currently the non-humans appear human, but have differences which set them apart. These are the Hybrids with which you are familiar, yet confused. They look human, but have abilities not generally considered “human”, such as ESP, channeling, telepathy, and the ability to transport themselves to other dimensions where they meet family and others no longer in physical form. Your psychics access information from the astral level, but some of your channels access high Spiritual Teachers who are leading your people. However, most of your people are asleep.

Your people will need a way to quickly prepare for the coming non-human beings from many worlds. (1) They will need to learn telepathy, which includes not only receiving and transmitting thoughts, but also hiding one’s thoughts from those who would manipulate you for their own purposes. Their purpose, generally speaking, is to overtake the human race; use human beings to carry out their missions; and overtake the planet earth. In other words, they desire to eliminate human freedom.

(2) Your second task for which you must prepare, is to learn to be open to receive, and transmit, energy. The Visitors cannot tolerate Universal energy as they are less spiritually evolved. Therefore, those humans who survive will be those who carry great energy. Moriah carries great energy, and it can be received and developed in her presence. There are some others also prepared, but there are also many who pretend to give what they cannot transmit. In other words, one must prepare to receive before one can transmit energy. One cannot “give” what one has not yet received.

(3) The third level of preparation concerns true empathy. Empathy is a human trait. It is essential to have empathy to fit the definition of human. Therefore, those “humans” among you without compassion and empathy are empty, and not, therefore, truly human. They are Hybrids of a variety that is most dangerous! Therefore, you must avoid all who appear human but have capacity to terrorize, torture and kill. While evil also exists in your world, most people are not “evil” all the time. That is why you are confused when someone who was always good and decent suddenly commits a horrendous crime upon another or others. However, lack of empathy is not a result of evil; it is an indicator that one is not truly human and you, therefore, must be aware!

In the coming months and years, Moriah will bring you Our messages. We are high Spiritual Teachers, not incarnate, who are tasked with 'preparing Humanity for the evolution that is occurring.' That "evolution" is integrating humans and non-human beings. In other words, We are charged with the successful integration which includes resistance, maintaining freedom, and maintaining human democracy while helping humans become more tolerant with one another so that they can expand that acceptance to include positive non-human beings. We will provide the guidance and direction, but it is humans who must do the preparation.

Human freedom is at stake! Your history books are replete with demonstrations of the mighty overcoming the weak. Instead, you must prepare with the sacred texts being given to Humanity through the messenger named Moriah."
